

Write the correct form of the verb after WISH according to the situation.

1. I can't use the computer, but I wish I _____ (can) use it.
2. He works much, but earns little. I wish he _____ (have) a good job.
3. She is so greedy. I wish she _____ (be) more generous.
4. I wish it _____ (rain) cats and dogs yesterday. We had to stay at home all day.
5. I wish Nina _____ (can/arrive) on time. She missed such a show!
6. I wish it _____ (be) so cold today. I have to put on a warm jacket.
7. If only Oksana _____ (stay) with us for a few days next month!
8. I wish the world _____ (be) cleaner!
9. If only we _____ (recycle) more paper the forests will be saved.
10. If only children _____ (play) less computer games now! – Yes, I wish they _____ (play) computer games so much in future.
11. She wished her husband _____ (care) about their children before he died.
12. I wish this printer _____ (break) down so quickly. We have to repair it now.
13. I wish they _____ (know) my phone number. I want them to phone me.
14. If only they _____ (miss) their train. We could already be talking to them.
15. Her husband is at hospital. I wish he _____ (drink) so much alcohol after the hospital.
16. I wish you _____ (take) my advice. You could have got a promotion.
17. I wish Bruce _____ (pass) the driving test. But now he'll have to take it again.
18. If only we _____ (waste) so much water. We wouldn't have run out of it.
19. I wish I _____ (drive) carefully. - If only you _____ (let) your dad drive. The accident wouldn't have happened.
20. You know, Sylvia was taken to hospital with obesity. If only she _____ (eat) less all the time. - I wish she _____ (walk) more too.

