1. Reading Comprehension: Travel Stories

Variant 1: Emma's Trip to London

Last spring, Emma went to London with her older brother.

They travelled by plane and arrived in the city in the morning.

Emma was very excited to see famous places she had read about in books.

They visited the Tower of London, where they saw the Crown Jewels.

Later, they walked across Tower Bridge and took lots of pictures.

Emma loved seeing the red double-decker buses and black taxis.

They also went to the London Eye and saw the whole city from above.

At lunchtime, they ate fish and chips at a local café.

In the evening, they watched a musical in a theatre near Piccadilly Circus.

Emma said it was one of the best trips she had ever had.
