

Read the text below and answer the question number 1.

Students should not bring mobile phones to school. Mobile phones can distract students in class. It is better to keep them at home.

1. What is the purpose of the text?
 - A. To describe how phones work
 - B. To explain how to use phones
 - C. To tell a story about students
 - D. To argue why phones should stay at home
 - E. To report about phone rules

2. What is the social function of a hortatory exposition text?
 - A. To tell past events
 - B. To entertain readers
 - C. To describe something
 - D. To persuade the reader
 - E. To show how to do something

3. Which one is the correct generic structure of a hortatory exposition text?
 - A. Orientation – Complication – Resolution
 - B. Identification – Description
 - C. Thesis – Arguments – Recommendation
 - D. Thesis – Arguments - Reiteration
 - E. Issue – Fact – Conclusion

Read the text below to answer question number 4.

Wearing a school uniform helps students focus on study. When students wear the same clothes, there is less competition. So, wearing uniforms is good for learning.

4. Which of these is the recommendation?
 - A. There is less competition.
 - B. Students wear the same clothes.
 - C. Wearing a school uniform helps students.
 - D. Wearing uniforms is good for learning.
 - E. Students should wear school uniforms.

Read the text below and answer question number 5.

“Turning off the lights when you leave a room helps save electricity. You should switch off the lights every time.”

5. What does the second sentence (“You should switch off the lights every time.”) represent in a hortatory exposition text?
 - A. Thesis
 - B. Argument
 - C. Recommendation
 - D. Identification
 - E. Description

Match each sentence with the correct structure!

Recommendation	1 st Argument	Suggestion	3 rd argument	Thesis	2 nd Argument
----------------	--------------------------	------------	--------------------------	--------	--------------------------

Structure	Text
	Second, reading helps students do better in school. It makes it easier to understand lessons and answer questions.
	Reading every day is very useful for students. It helps them learn new words and understand the world better. That is why students should read every day.
	In conclusion, reading is not only helpful for school, but also for life. It is a good habit that helps students grow. So, students should read every day to become smarter and more confident. Second, reading helps students do better in school. It makes it easier to understand lessons and answer questions.
	First, reading gives more knowledge. When students read books, they can learn about animals, science, people, and many other things.
	Third, reading is also fun. There are many interesting stories and books that can make students happy and relaxed.