

Choose a topic to create a presentation whereby a role play will make negotiation, will handle complaints, will structure properly the presentation, will make requests, give responses and the conclusions. Submit your presentation with a link.

Provide a final report for the business meeting. By writing or in a link.

Share the final report by email to the main people of the company. By writing or in a link.