Passage

Once upon a time, in a small village nestled between lush green hills, there lived a young girl named Lily. Lily had a special gift: she could talk to animals. Every morning, she would wander through the forest, listening to the birds sing and chatting with the squirrels and rabbits. Her best friend was a wise old owl named Oliver, who always gave her the best advice.

One day, while exploring a new path in the forest, Lily stumbled upon a hidden garden full of beautiful flowers she had never seen before. The air was filled with a sweet fragrance, and the colors of the flowers were more vibrant than anything Lily had ever encountered. Amazed, she ran back to Oliver to tell him about her discovery.

Oliver, with a twinkle in his eye, told Lily that the garden was enchanted and that it only appeared to those with pure hearts. He advised her to keep the garden a secret, as it was a special place meant only for her.
