

Read the statements below and decide whether each statement is TRUE or FALSE.
Correct the FALSE statements.

No	STATEMENTS	TRUE	FALSE
1	There are two different views about vagueness in language that are positive and negative.
2	Vagueness in language is considered to be positive in spoken discourse rather than in written discourse.
3	Vagueness in spoken language is noticeable through words and body language.
4	According to Grice, when people have conversations they usually follow maxims, that show how cooperative speakers are.
5	Vagueness in language is created by both speakers that can show the success of the conversation.
6	Both explicit and implicit meanings do not play any role in the context that is related to vagueness.
7	Vagueness fails the idea of sustaining harmony and cooperation with social group.
8	Fuzzy notions and vague boundaries provide the speaker with opportunity in which he/she demonstrates various attitudes towards the particular suggestion.
9	For speakers use of vague language is considered to be one of the strategies to avoid giving accurate answers so that the listener is not offended.
10	Vague language forms play little role in understanding the shared contextual knowledge.
11	Words very, overly, extremely, really, obviously are applied by speakers to soften the tone of an utterance).
12	Vague language is successfully used by non-native speakers		