

GE8 WRITING SUMMER REVISION 3

1. Read and write the PARAPHRASING TECHNIQUE(s) used next to the sentence:

Music helps people express their feelings.

→ Music allows people to show their emotions. _____

She discovered something that changed the way people understand the disease.

→ Her discovery altered the people's understanding of the disease. _____

People speak many different languages around the world.

→ Many different languages are spoken around the world. _____

Many animals and plants live in the Amazon rainforest.

→ The Amazon rainforest is home to many animals and plants. _____

For hundreds of years, people have used stories to pass on cultural traditions.

→ Storytelling has been used for centuries to share culturally traditional practices.

2. Paraphrase the following sentences the technique(s) given in brackets:

"Art helps people to show their feelings." (synonyms)

"He discovered something that altered the way people understand the condition." (change the word form)

"A large number of animals and plants live in the dense Amazon rainforest." (change the sentence structure)

"His discovery changed the way people understand the condition." (change the active to the passive, change the word form, use synonyms)

"Over a ten-year period, these communities have used festivals to pass on their cultural traditions." (change the active to the passive, use synonym, change the word form)

Stories were passed down from generation to generation. (change the passive to active, use synonyms)
