Amy and I started a film company together even though we _____ (not know) each other very long at the time.	I _____ (stay) with friends in Hollywood for a month when an agent asked me to audition for a film.
He wasn't very good at acting because he _____ (not have) any training.	The cameraman was tired because he _____ (film) through the night.
I _____ (not want) to see the film, but, by the end of it, I thought it was the best thing I'd seen all year!	The film was so popular that by the end of the month our local cinema _____ (show) it over fifty times.

As the match went on, I saw Peter _____ (get) angrier and angrier. His team weren't playing well at all.	You'd better not _____ (go) to school today with such a bad cold.
_____ (ride) a bike on busy roads can be dangerous.	Why _____ (complain) about things when you can do something about it?
I didn't mean _____ (play) so badly.	I'd sooner not _____ (come) round later. I'm not feeling well.
As she opened her front door, Sara saw somebody _____ (jump) out of the window. It all happened in an instant.	Don't forget _____ (give) your grandmother a call.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Harry has already left. I think he (might / must / should) _____ (catch) the nine o'clock train, but I'm not sure.	Sylvia (can / should / may) _____ (tell) us that she was going away. It was really bad of her to let us down in this way.
You (can / might / must) _____ (give) me a lift! Didn't you see me on the side of the road?	William (can't / needn't / shouldn't) _____ (know) about the trip. If he had known, he would have definitely come with us.
You (weren't supposed to / didn't need to / mustn't) _____ (tell) Andy about the birthday party when you did. His sister wanted it to be a surprise.	Graham (must / can / may) _____ (win) the match he played this afternoon. If he hadn't won, he wouldn't be looking so pleased with himself.
The concert was free, so we (needn't / shouldn't / didn't need to) _____ (pay) to get in.	Sue (ought to / have to / need to) _____ (send) her aunt a card. It was rude of her to forget.

Have you tried _____ (talk) it over with your parents? Sometimes it's good to share a problem.	I'd rather _____ (play) tennis than golf.
On the way home, I stopped _____ (buy) some chewing gum at the corner shop.	Why not _____ (call) round later? We'll do something together.
I overheard Karen _____ (tell) Simon about your party, but I didn't stay and listen to the end of their conversation.	Could you remember _____ (pick) up the parcel from the post office?
The government should stop people _____ (cycle) in the park.	