

LLEIDA TOURIST OFFICE

Tourist 1: Hello! We're visiting Lleida and heard about the “Dipòsit del Pla de l'Aigua”. Can you tell us more about it?

Tourist Guide 1: Certainly! It's an underground water reservoir built in 1784. It was the first of its kind in Lleida.

Tourist 2: That's fascinating. What was its purpose?

Tourist Guide 2: It was designed to store potable water and distribute it through five monumental fountains across the city.

Tourist 1: Can we visit it today?

Tourist Guide 1: Yes, it's open on weekends and holidays from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., and admission is free.

Tourist 2: Great! How do we get there?

Tourist Guide 2: It's located at Murcia street, 10. You can walk there from the city center or take public transport.
