

1. Danny Zuko

He is the studious, socially awkward Rydell High nerd who's often the butt of jokes but always comes across as a good kid, adding humor to the film. He doesn't fit in with the popular crowd.

2. Sandy

Leader of the Pink Ladies. She's a tough girl with a strong character who speaks her mind. Although she pretends that nothing bothers her, she has deep feelings for those she cares about. She maintains a casual relationship with Kenickie.

3. Rizzo

He's the story's protagonist and leader of the T-birds. Although he comes across as a tough, rebellious boy to his friends, he has a very sweet and romantic side, which he reveals to Sandy during their summer romance.

4. Eugene

She's the film's co-star. She's a sweet and demure girl trying to adapt to the American lifestyle of the young people she meets. She's in love with Danny, but wants him to respect her and not just seek physical contact.