9 Grammar Worksheet

there is / there are; Questions with How many

1. Circle the correct words.

1. There is / (are) five movie theaters in my city.
2. There is / are an Italian restaurant around the corner.
3. Is / Are there good schools in your city?
4. Is / Are there a mall in the neighborhood?
5. There is / are two hotels in my street.
6. How many stores is / are there at the mall?
7. A: Is / Are there a French restaurant in your street?
8. B: Yes, there is / are.

2. Complete the conversation with a form of there is / there are.

A: What's your hometown like?

B: It's awesome! It's not big, but (1) there are lots of things to do.

A: (2)_____ movie theaters in your town?

B: Yes, there (3)_____.

A: How many movie theaters (4)_____?

B: (5)_____ three!

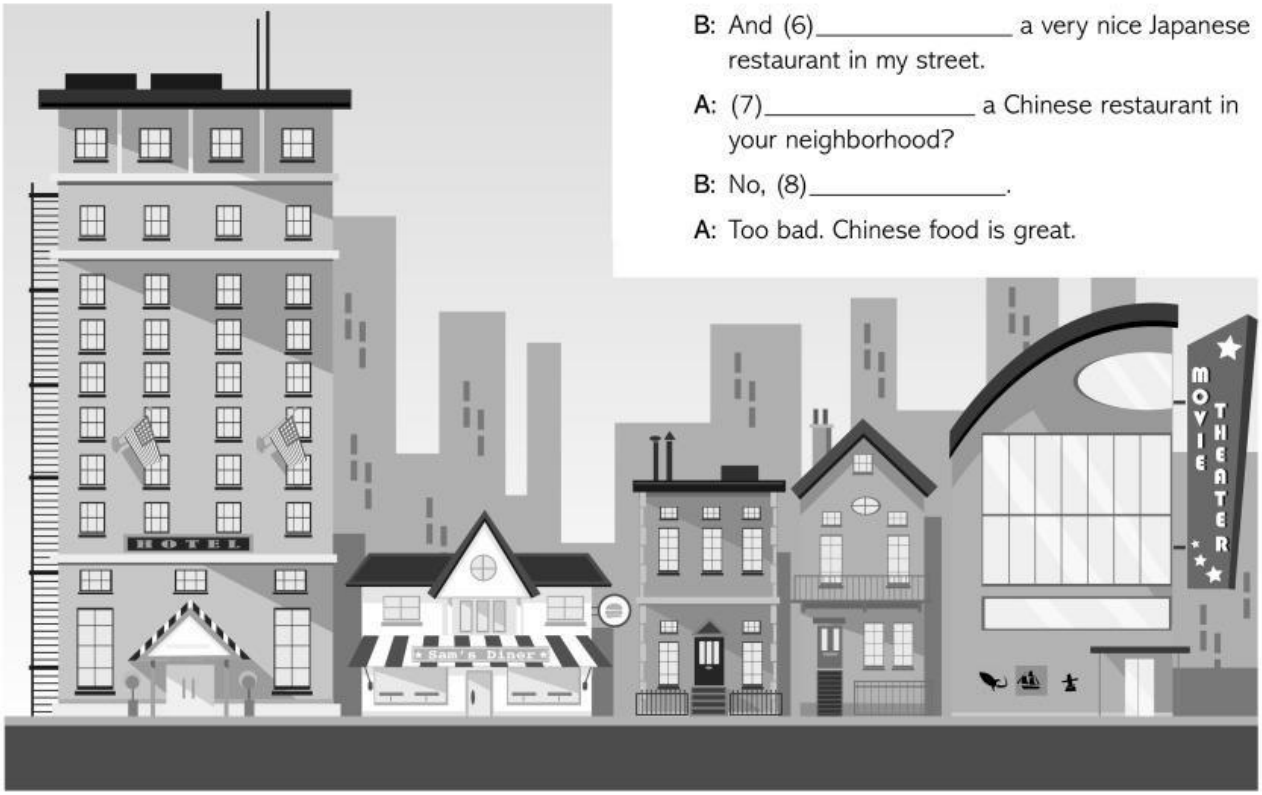

A: Wow! That's a lot.

B: And (6)_____ a very nice Japanese restaurant in my street.

A: (7)_____ a Chinese restaurant in your neighborhood?

B: No, (8)_____.

A: Too bad. Chinese food is great.

3. Look at the picture. Write the questions and answers.

1. Is there a bus stop?
   No, there isn't.
2. _____ a movie theater?
   _____.
3. _____ a hotel?
   _____.
4. _____ an apartment building?
   _____.
5. _____ a restaurant?
   _____.
6. _____ a store?
   _____.
7. _____ houses?
   _____.
8. How many houses _____?
   _____.

PHOTOCOPIABLE © Oxford University Press 2014

LIVEWORKSHEETS