

Unit 5: How are they made?

Reading: Where is the iPhone made?

Vocabulary practice

Instruction: with the given sentence examples, write down correct bold word under each picture

1. The puzzle is very complex. It took me three hours to finish because it had many small pieces.
2. Each individual has their own unique style. This means everyone has their own way of doing things.
3. We need to order more supplies of paper. Without enough paper, we can't print our documents.
4. The store offers a variety of fruits. This means they have many different kinds of fruits to choose from.
5. You can combine red and blue to make purple. Mixing these two colors creates a new color.
6. The company has a global presence. Their business operates in many countries around the world.
7. They manufacture cars at the factory. This means they make cars in large quantities in that place.
8. The assembly of the new desk was quick and easy. Putting all the parts together to build it didn't take much time.

Vocabulary in context

Instruction: Complete the sentences with the correct word in the box complex combine individual global supply manufacture

variety assembly

1. The restaurant offers a wide _____ of dishes from different cuisines.
2. The company plans to _____ new electronic devices in its factories.
3. The _____ of the toy was simple, just put the pieces together.
4. Each _____ in the team has their own unique skills.
5. To make the cake, you need to _____ flour, sugar, and eggs in a bowl.
6. The new computer system is very _____, with many interconnected parts.
7. The store needs to manage its _____ of groceries to meet customer demand.
8. Climate change is a _____ issue that affects people all over the world.

Sentence Writing

Instruction: Writing eight sentences using eight words above
