Rewrite the sentences to emphasize the underlined word or phrase.

1 Francis called Ben last night.
It ..... .

2 I'd like more free time not money.
It ..... .

3 She doesn't like the way her manager speaks to her.
It ..... .

4 The hotel we stayed in was expensive but the flights cost us the most.
The hotel we stayed in was expensive, but it
..... .

5 The report is going to focus on the reasons why the project failed.
It ..... .

6 The students find out their results in January.
It ..... .

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Rewrite the sentences to emphasize the underlined phrases.

1 In winter I hate the cold weather.
The thing that _____ .

2 We forgot to lock our front door.
What _____ .

3 I loved being able to relax on a beach.
The thing that _____ .

4 She liked the film's ending the most.
What _____ .

5 The airline won't refund our tickets.
The thing that _____ .

6 You're now going to see a summary of the research.
What _____ .

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Rewrite the underlined parts of the sentences to make them more emphatic, using a form of do. When it is not possible to add a form of do, circle the word that needs to be stressed.

1 I thought the tourist office would be a bit more helpful. .....

2 These snakes will bite you if they get the chance. .....

3 She seemed to be ignoring everything the tour guide was saying. .....

4 They have already paid for their meal.

.....

5 They offered to exchange the faulty item, but she wanted a refund. .....

6 She works in a bank, doesn't she?

.....

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Choose the correct (a–c) option to replace the underlined parts of the sentences.

1 Shall we go to the restaurant by the sea or the restaurant near the castle?
a that b the one c it

2 A: Is the film festival starting this weekend?
B: Yeah, I think the film festival is starting this weekend.
a it b that c so

3 A: I had to wake up at 4 a.m. to get to the airport on time.
B: Waking up at 4 a.m. must have been hard!
a so b that c one

4 A: The suitcases you bought are too small!
B: They were the biggest suitcases they had in the shop!
a ones b one c it

5 A: What time does the tourist office open?
B: I think the tourist office opens at 9 a.m.
a one b that c it

6 A: Will there be a lot of people at the meeting?
B: I expect there will be a lot of people at the meeting.
a it b so c ones

LIVEWORKSHEETS