Hide and Seek

'Letterboxing' is a fun outdoor hobby. Here's how it works: people hide a box. Inside the box, they put a rubber stamp and a notebook. They post clues on websites to help you find the box.

Then you look for the letterbox! You need to have your internet clues, a pen or pencil, your notebook and a rubber stamp. You may need a map and compass, too.

When you find the letterbox, you look for the notebook inside. Then, you write your name, home town and the date. You press your rubber stamp on the page. Then you take the stamp from inside the box and stamp it in your own notebook. Finally, you wrap the box carefully. You leave it where you found it for another person to find.

Dorrie and her mum love letterboxing! On their last holiday, they used clues to find a letterbox. Her mum read one clue: 'Pass the apple tree on your right.' Then she read the last clue: 'Keep your back to the tree and take four steps.' Dorrie took four steps. There it was! It was a plastic box, hidden under some stones. Dorrie read the notebook to see who was there before her. She added her name and stamp and then used the stamp from the letterbox on her notebook.

Dorrie wants to go letterboxing again. She says, 'I love reading mysteries and solving problems!'
