Teeth

- Example Every time we eat we use our teeth. Teeth help us to break our food into small pieces.
- 1 are three different kinds of teeth: 'incisors', 'molars' and 2 'canines'. kind has a different job. The incisors are the 3 teeth the front of the mouth. We need them to cut our food.
- 4 The molars are biggest teeth in our mouths. Between the incisors and the molars we have the canines. They are longer 5 the other teeth.
- 6 Children's first teeth are 'milk teeth'. Children usually 7 have twenty milk teeth and they have of them when they are about two years old.
- 8 When children are seven or eight years old they start to new teeth. Grown ups have thirty-two teeth.
- 9 It is very important for us to look our teeth. We should 10 them with a toothbrush after every meal and it is good to go to the dentist every six months.

Hippos

Example 'Hippo' is a short word for 'hippopotamus'. The word 1 'hippopotamus' means 'river horse'. Hippos are river 2 horses because they live rivers and lakes and eat grass.
Hippos never eat meat but they are very strong and brave animals.
3 They aren't afraid crocodiles or boats. When they 4 angry, they open their mouths to show their big teeth.
5 The eyes and nose very high on a hippo's head. This means that a hippo can swim with only the top of its head out of the water. It can still see, and take in air through its nose. But hippos also 6 like going under the water. They are very good walking on the bottom of a lake. They close their noses and ears and can stay 7 under the water five minutes!
8 night, hippos leave the water and spend five 9 six hours eating grass. But early the next morning, they 10 to go back into the water before the hot sun comes up in the sky again.

Saturday

Example

My sister and I had a sailing lesson today.

It was great!

When Dad was young, he often went sailing with his

1 brother, our Peter. They both loved 2 sailing, so now we are going learn to sail too.

When we arrived at the sailing school, our teacher

3 and two other students waiting for 4 us in a boat. It was a small boat, but wasn't much wind on the lake, so it wasn't dangerous.

The teacher told us the names for all the different

5 parts of the boat and she , 'Don't forget them! I will test you next week.'
