1. Opening	a. I was hoping to see you online last night, but you weren't there. Were you busy? What were you doing? You're almost always online on Tuesday evening! Anyway, I haven't heard from Akira lately. Have you? He used to be online all the time. Last time he wrote he said that he'd been having a pretty hard time at school. He'd had loads of exams and I think he was pretty stressed out. I know the feeling … I've been studying loads recently and haven't had much time to play either. Do you think he's OK? Maybe we should get in touch and see if he wants to meet up for a game one day soon.
2. Introduction / Reason for writing	b. Hi Jordi! I'm writing you an email for a change! It was good to chat last week. It's funny that we've got so much in common and we're both fans of the best game in the world.
3. Main message / Body	c. Write back if you have time. If not, see you soon at the usual place!
4. Closing comments / Final thoughts	d. Paolo
5. Ending / Signature	e. Sorry I haven't sent you a message before now, but I was waiting until I could scan in the painting and get it up on the blog. In the end I did it yesterday, so here's the link! What do you think of my artwork? The first painting is the dragon from the game and the second one is your character. Do you like it? Do you reckon I'll be a famous artist one day?
