

Reading Text: The Meaning of Kindness

Kindness is one of the core values that shapes the beauty of human character. When we treat others with compassion, we not only bring joy and comfort to them but also nurture our own souls. A small act—such as a caring question, a friendly smile, or timely help—can make a big difference in someone's life. The spread of kindness helps build a compassionate, connected, and loving society.

Part 1: Choose the correct answer

1. According to the text, what does kindness do for ourselves?
 - A. Makes us richer
 - B. Helps us win arguments
 - C. Nurtures our soul
 - D. Makes us look important
2. Which of the following is NOT mentioned as a small act of kindness in the text?
 - A. A friendly smile
 - B. Helping on time
 - C. Sharing food
 - D. A caring question
3. What kind of society does kindness help build?
 - A. A competitive society
 - B. A technological society
 - C. A compassionate and loving society
 - D. A divided society

Part 2: Choose True or False

1. Kindness only benefits the person who receives it.
2. Kindness can help connect people in society.
3. A kind action must be something big and expensive.
4. Kindness is described as one of the core values in human character.

