Edinburgh is the capital city of Scotland. It has enormous historical significance. Located on the east coast of Scotland, Edinburgh proudly offers a window to the past. For many people, this city is an exciting mix of something traditional and something modern.

Edinburgh has been Scotland's royal city since 1437. Most of Edinburgh's sights are within two districts: the old town and the new town. The medieval Royal Mile stretching for over a mile from Edinburgh Castle to the Palace of Holyroodhouse dominates the city's central area. The Royal Mile is one of the largest, longest and most splendid streets for buildings in Britain.

To millions of visitors, Edinburgh Castle is a must-see because there are many treasures. Princess Street is in Edinburgh's new town, directly below the castle. Next to Princess Street, in the shadow of Edinburgh Castle, lies the green Princess Street Gardens. This is one of the most delightful gardens in Britain. Edinburgh is also a cultural centre. The worldwide famous Edinburgh Fringe Festival (a series of arts festivals held in August) draws thousands and thousands of visitors to the city annually. So Edinburgh is really a place no traveler should ignore.

1. Which of the following dominates the central area of Edinburgh?

- A. The Royal Mile.    B. Edinburgh Castle.    C. Holyroodhouse.    D. Princess Street.

2. The word "splendid" in the passage mostly means _____.

- A. communal    B. basic    C. magnificent    D. occupied

3. The word "This" in the passage refers to _____.

- A. Princess Street    B. Edinburgh    C. Edinburgh Castle    D. Princess Street Gardens

4. Which of the following is NOT TRUE, according to the passage?

- A. Edinburgh belonged to the past.
B. Edinburgh is Scotland's royal city.
C. Holyroodhouse is at one end of Royal Mile.
D. Arts festivals are held in August in Edinburgh.

Part 5: Read the following passage and decide if the statements that follow are TRUE or FALSE.

(1.0 pt)

Viet Nam is in the period of industrialisation and modernisation, and many aspects of Vietnamese lifestyle have changed. The biggest differences we can see now are in teenagers' lifestyle. They are now more flexible and casual in the way they dress. They wear their hair in different styles and even dye it different colours. They have become more confident in communicating with others, even with their elders. They are daring in their actions and ambitions. For many of them, technology has become important in their daily life. They use it for study and entertainment.

However, Vietnamese teenagers have also learnt to treasure their traditional values. Many customs and traditions are passed from generation to generation. Vietnamese teens show respect for the elders, at home and outside. They learn to value their families. They come to their parents for advice and ask for permission in their important decisions such as university study and marriage. They also wear traditional costumes such as ao dai, ao tu than, and cook traditional Vietnamese foods on special occasions.

1. The most significant change in lifestyle can be seen among the elderly.
2. The example of teenagers dying their hair in different colours shows that they are now more flexible.
3. Most teenagers use technology for entertaining and studying.
4. Teenagers want to depend on their parents.
