

Name _____ Date _____

End of Unit 8 test

Vocabulary 1

Read the sentences about the rainforest and circle the correct word for each space.

Example:

0 Rainforests are important for the world's _____.

a understory

b climate

c canopy

1 Carbon dioxide is a _____ gas.

a greenhouse

b forest

c climate

[1]

2 People need _____ resources like water and minerals.

a carbon

b natural

c gas

[1]

3 The bottom part of the rainforest is called the forest _____.

a canopy

b understory

c floor

[1]

4 People need to breathe in _____.

a oxygen

b atmosphere

c carbon

[1]

5 The top part of the rainforest is called the _____.

a understory

b canopy

c greenhouse

[1]

Vocabulary 2

Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

hang	move	play	whistle	stare	grab
------	------	------	---------	-------	------

Example:

0 Don't stare – it's rude!

-
- 6 Can I _____ a game with you? [1]
- 7 My sister can _____ really loudly! [1]
- 8 I think that monkey wants to _____ your banana from you! [1]
- 9 Sloths _____ very slowly through the rainforest. [1]
- 10 Can you _____ from the branch of a tree like a monkey? [1]

Grammar 1

Write the adjectives in the correct order.

Example:

0 (long / white / big) teeth

big long white teeth

11 (green / beautiful / new) jackets

_____ jackets [1]

12 (tall / South American / old) trees

_____ trees [1]

13 (black / fat / small) dogs

_____ dogs [1]

14 (African / brown / large) birds

_____ birds [1]

15 (furry / big / red) pencil cases

_____ pencil cases [1]

Grammar 2

Circle the correct words.

Example:

0 It's quite / extremely cold today, so bring a jumper.

16 It was little / extremely wet yesterday. [1]

17 This book is quite / extremely interesting, but other books that I've read are more interesting. [1]

18 The film was a quite / little sad at the end. [1]

19 This tree produces little / extremely large amounts of rubber. [1]

20 Timo's poem is very / quite good, so I think it should win first prize in the poetry competition. [1]