What is the best way to travel across Guatemala.? Do you agree to these answers?

1. I think the bus is the cheapest way to get around. It's not the fastest, but it's okay. Taxis are faster, but also more expensive.

2. Zone 10 in Guatemala City has the best nightlife. It's livelier and feels safer than other places. People usually go out around 8 or 9 p.m.—that's the best time.

3. Most tourists go to Antigua. It's the most popular place, and I understand why! It's more beautiful and more relaxing than the capital. I've been there a few times.

4. You should try pepián! It's one of the most interesting traditional dishes. I think it tastes better with handmade tortillas. You can find it in local restaurants, especially in Antigua.

5. If you want a fun day trip, go to Lake Atitlán. It's the best spot for a quick trip. It's easier to get there than other places, and the lake is more beautiful than any photo!

6. I really like the Popol Vuh Museum. It's the best one, in my opinion. It's more interesting than the others and usually quieter, which I like.

7. The weather is nicest in November and December. It's cooler and drier. May is the worst—it gets hotter and rainier, so I try to stay inside!

Choose the correct option

1. Mexico City is one of the (biggest / bigger / more big) cities in the world.

2. Guatemala is smaller / small / the smaller than Mexico, but it has a lot of beautiful places.

3. Antigua is the most colorful / more colorful / colorfuller city I've visited in Guatemala.

4. I think Lake Atitlán is more peaceful / peacefuller / the peaceful than the beach.

5. Tikal is one of the most interesting / interestingest / more interesting places for history lovers.

6. The weather in November is better / more good / gooder than in May.

Carlos: I just came back from Mexico City. It's one of the _____ (large) cities I've ever seen!

Sofia: Really? I went there last year. I thought it was _____ (busy) than Lima.

Carlos: Yes, it's definitely _____ (crowded) than most places. But the food is amazing—probably _____ (delicious) food in the region!

Sofia: I still think Buenos Aires has _____ (good) music and dancing. It's so fun there.

Carlos: Maybe! But for me, the people in Colombia are _____ (friendly) than anywhere else.

Sofia: I agree. And the coffee in Colombia is _____ (good) than in most countries, too!

1. What places in Guatemala is the most _____ ?

2. What restaurants is more _____ _____ or
_____?

3. What amusement park has the most _____ in the country?

4. What places have the most. _____ at night?

5. What place in the city is more _____ than _____?

6. Is there a place more ._____ than _____?

7. What place in Guatemala gets are the most _____?

8. What place in the department has the best _____?