Front of the Class - Multiple Choice Questions

1. What condition does Brad Cohen have?

   A. Dyslexia

   B. Autism

   C. Tourette Syndrome

   D. ADHD

2. What triggers Brad's first major public outburst in the film?

   A. A teacher punishes him

   B. He's forced to speak in public

   C. He plays the piano

   D. A reading exercise in class

3. How do most teachers react to Brad's tics in elementary school?

   A. With understanding

   B. With indifference

   C. With anger and punishment

   D. With curiosity

4. Who is Brad's biggest advocate during his childhood?

   A. His principal

   B. His mom

   C. His teacher

   D. His neighbor

5. What does Brad's principal do that changes how people view his condition?

   A. Suspends him

   B. Sends him to a special school

   C. Calls an assembly to educate students

LIVEWORKSHEETS

D. Tells him to stop faking

6. How does the student body react after the school assembly about Brad's condition?

A. They mock him

B. They isolate him

C. They become more accepting

D. They ignore the assembly

7. What does young Brad decide he wants to be when he grows up?

A. Doctor

B. Actor

C. Teacher

D. Lawyer

8. What does Brad say about the teachers who didn't believe in him?

A. He forgives them

B. He wants to prove them wrong

C. He wants to sue them

D. He never mentions them

9. What challenge does Brad face while trying to get a teaching job?

A. Lack of qualifications

B. Poor interview skills

C. Discrimination due to his tics

D. No teaching license

10. What keeps Brad motivated during rejection after rejection in job interviews?

A. His faith

B. His mother's encouragement

C. His journal

D. His girlfriend

LIVEWORKSHEETS

11. What role does Brad's father play in his early life?

A. He is very supportive

B. He leaves the family

C. He misunderstands Brad's condition

D. He never appears in the film

12. Which of the following best describes Brad's attitude despite his challenges?

A. Bitter

B. Resentful

C. Hopeful

D. Passive

13. How does Brad explain his Tourette Syndrome to children and adults?

A. He avoids talking about it

B. He uses humor and honesty

C. He shows them medical papers

D. He asks his mom to explain

14. What's a major theme established early in the movie?

A. Revenge

B. Acceptance and perseverance

C. Isolation

D. Supernatural powers

15. Which moment marks a turning point in how Brad sees himself?

A. His first job rejection

B. The school assembly

C. His diagnosis

D. His parents' divorce

LIVEWORKSHEETS