

Activity 1: Match the word to its definition. Write the letter beside the correct word.

1. sensor _____	A. a path that electricity flows through
2. innovative _____	B. a device that detects or measures physical changes, usually related to light, heat or movement
3. circuit _____	C. the first or 'original' design of something that inspires other designs
4. prototype _____	D. a way to describe new ideas or ways of doing something that is original and creative Activity 2: Read the sentences below and decide if they are 'True' or 'False'. If the answer is 'False', write the correct answer in the space provided.

- In English, the four major word classes are: nouns, verbs, adjectives and adverbs. T F

- It's important to know the class of a word to help us understand its function in a sentence. T F

- We can change the form of a word by changing its suffix (a group of letters added to the end of a word). T F

- It's not possible to use existing words to create new ones. T F

Activity 3: Read the sentences below. Decide what word class (noun, verb, adjective or adverb) the word in bold belongs to. Write your answer in the space provided.

1. The students were disappointed because their science project was not successful.

2. Exercising on a regular basis can help strengthen your muscles.

3. The manager showed appreciation for her employees by taking them out for a nice dinner.

4. The traveller found it challenging to communicate with the locals.

5. The athlete successfully completed the marathon after months of hard work and training.

6. The teacher reminded her students to appreciate the small things in life.

Activity 4: Complete the sentence by using the word in brackets to create a new word.

1. It's important to _____ (memory) all of your passwords.
2. After many hours of work, the student _____ (success) completed her project.
3. Certain sports require a lot of physical _____ (strong).
4. Many people spend their lives looking for true _____ (happy).
5. The children were filled with _____ (excite) when they found out they were going on a family trip to Thailand.
6. Good _____ (communicate) is important in all areas of life, such as school, work and relationships.
7. Daily _____ (move) is important for your overall health and wellbeing.

Activity 5: Identify the word class that each word belongs to. Then, write a sentence using each of the words.

1. memorable: _____
2. memorise: _____
3. communication: _____
4. communicative: _____
5. successfully: _____
6. success: _____

Activity 6: Write about a project you would like to create. Explain what the project is, how it would work and its purpose. In your answer, include as many of the words below as you can.

invent

invention

prototype

success

sensory

develop

successful

circuit

development

