

Activity 6: Read sentences i-iii. For each sentence, say if it:

- a. expresses the same opinion as the statement above (Yes).
- b. expresses an opposite opinion from the statement above (No).
- c. says something completely new, not mentioned in the original statement (Not Given).

1. Museums should make fine art accessible to everyone, regardless of their educational background, by offering free entry and simplified explanations of exhibitions.

- i. Museums should charge visitors to maintain the quality of exhibits.
- ii. Free entry to museums helps promote art education for all people.
- iii. Some museums have permanent collections featuring modern art.

2. Fine art is often misunderstood as something meant for the wealthy or the educated, but it has a universal message that can be appreciated by all audiences.

- i. Fine art appeals only to those who are well-educated.
- ii. The meaning of art can be appreciated by all people regardless of their background.
- iii. Museums should invest in digital guides for visitors to improve accessibility.

3. Interactive museum exhibits allow visitors to connect with fine art on a personal level and make their experience more engaging.

- i. Interactive exhibits make museums more appealing to younger audiences.
- ii. Interactive exhibits help people better understand fine art.
- iii. Visitors does not find interactive exhibits helpful in helping them appreciate fine art.