What to do in London at different times of the year

In spring

Watch (or run!) the London Marathon. One of Europe's biggest marathons takes place in spring every year, usually in April. About 40,000 people, including top runners and celebrities, run 26.2 miles through the city. It's a fantastic atmosphere. You can watch anywhere along the route, but the Tower of London and the finish, near Buckingham Palace, are my favourite places. April in London doesn't always mean good weather – be prepared for sun, showers, and wind!

In summer

Go to the Open Air Theatre in Regent's Park. Open from May to September, this is a great place to see Shakespeare and other classics. Come prepared for all types of weather. If it rains – and it can – you can buy plastic raincoats at the theatre. In bad weather they sometimes cancel a performance, but you can use your tickets on a different day. You can buy a picnic or take your own, and you can buy dinner, too (quite expensive!).

3 READING & SPEAKING

In autumn

- 35 Go to the Treetop Walkway at Kew Gardens.

This is one of the highlights of Kew, London's botanical gardens. It's open all year round, and it's beautiful in autumn when the trees are changing colour. The Walkway is 18 metres above the ground, and you can see

- 40 all the gardens and a lot of famous buildings, including Wembley Stadium. You can also see birds and insects very close up, and

- 45 find out all about the trees around you. But if the weather is very windy, the Walkway sometimes closes.

In winter

Visit the V&A. London is

- 55 full of wonderful museums, where you can happily spend a cold winter's day. My favourite, which not all tourists know about, 60 is the Victoria and Albert Museum, or V&A. It's the world's top museum for art and design, and has amazing collections of clothes, 65 furniture, jewellery, clocks, and ceramics. Exhibitions include the clothes of fashion designer Alexander McQueen, and the career of 70 David Bowie. It has special activities for children, and a great café open daily until 17.15. Entrance is free, but some exhibitions charge a fee.
