

TEST ABOUT UNIT 5. THE MUSICAL FORM. TYPE B

Name and surname _____ Group: _____ Date: _____

1. Link with narrows each sentence with its word:

- the composer can extend easily their composition - VARIATION
- the melody is recognised again with little changes - CONTRAST
- the composer gives surprise and curiosity to the listeners - REPETITION

2. What does each letter represent in Pop music?

A: _____ B: _____
preB: _____ C: _____

3. Drag the different melodies below into the staff to write a Ternary Form using the following melody A :

(the excess melodies must be placed in the white rectangle)

4. Write down the structure of this classical music and the name of its musical form:

It is a _____ form

5. Drag the different melodies below to the staff to write a Rondo Form using the following melody A: and the following melody C:

(the excess melodies must be placed in the white rectangle)

6. Write down the structure of the following Rondó:

7. Pick the correct sentences about the Interlude and the Coda in a current song?

- The Coda is placed at the end and the Interlude is placed at the beginning
- The Interlude is placed in the middle and the Coda is placed at the end
- The Interlude is played by several instruments and the Coda is placed at the end
- The Interlude is played by one instrument and the Coda is placed at the end
- The Coda is placed at the beginning and the interlude used to be sung

8. Write T (True) or F (False) in the following sentences about the Verse and Chorus in a current song?

- The Verse tells the story of the song and the Chorus expresses the general feeling of the song
- The Chorus has the same melody but different lyrics and the Verse has the same melody and lyric
- The Chorus is the catchiest part of the song and the Verse is an instrumental part without the singer
- The Verse has different lyrics and the Chorus always has the same lyric
- The Chorus used to be before the Verse and the Verse used to be after the Coda
- The Verse is accompanied by instruments and the Chorus is the part that the audience remember.

9. Write down the structure of the following Pop song:

10. Write down the structure of the following Pop song:
