52 activities in 52 weeks!

Libby Segal, a writer from Pennsylvania, USA, usually watches DVDs and plays computer games. But she hates being bored, and that's why she's doing something very unusual at the moment.

This year, Libby's doing 52 new activities – one for every week of the year! And these aren't 'normal' activities like concerts and shopping. Libby wants to try some very unusual things, like parkour, pottery, and t'ai chi. But isn't she getting tired? The answer is definitely 'no'.

At the moment she's learning new skills and meeting some amazing people.

She's also learning to deal with some of her biggest fears. She did a skydive last week, and she's not afraid of heights any more! Last month she also sang in public on the New York subway.

One thing's for sure : right now, Libby's having the best time of her life.
