Playground designer: Good morning, everyone! We're going to work together to plan your new playground. Your playground will have two towers. What will we have between the towers? Will we have a tunnel or a bridge? It's up to you. What would you like?
Child 1: A _____!
Playground designer: OK, we will have a bridge! Now let's choose _____. We can have two slides. There are _____ slides and _____ slides.
Child 1: I want a curvy slide.
Child 4: I want a straight slide.
Playground designer: Well, we can have one curvy slide and one straight slide. Does that sound good?
Child: Yes. That's good!
Playground designer: Let's choose a _____. We can have a _____ ladder or a _____ ladder.
