

The Creepiest Haunted Places in Scotland

Greyfriars Kirkyard

Described as “one of the scariest places on earth” and “Scotland’s most haunted cemetery”, this ancient resting place also contains the Covenanters’ Prison and the tombstone of Thomas Riddell Esquire, the real inspiration behind a famous Harry Potter villain, Voldemort.

Stirling Castle

Although a great number of Scotland’s castles are deemed haunted – Edinburgh, Eilean Donan and Crathes included – Stirling is up there with the best of them.

The Old Tay Bridge

The setting of one of the biggest engineering disasters in the 19th century, when a train carrying 75 passengers fell from the bridge into the icy waters below, the Old Tay Bridge is said to host the spectral locomotive once a year on the anniversary of its crash.

St Andrews Cathedral

Once the biggest medieval church in Scotland, St Andrews in Fife is home to a multitude of spooky tales and ghostly appearances.

Although the town is known for its famous golf course, its ruined cathedral is said to be one of the most haunted places in the country.

source : <https://theculturetrip.com/europe/united-kingdom/scotland/articles/the-creepiest-haunted-places-in-scotland/>

Read the text, highlight and write down :

- places/type of places:

- adjectives/words related to fear and the paranormal:

Le Superlatif

“

"the biggest medieval church in Scotland"

"one of the scariest places on earth"

"Scotland's most haunted cemetery"

”

Quels adjectifs reconnaît-on ici?

"The"

(adjectif)

"The" (adjectif mais

qui se termine par
un -)

"The most"

(adjectif)

Le superlatif permet de comparer un élément et de le placer au-dessus de plusieurs autres éléments ("le plus...").

On s'exerce ! Place l'adjectif donné au superlatif dans la phrase :

1. Glasgow is (+large) city in Scotland.
2. Scotland is the (+big) gin producer in the UK.
3. Edinburgh Castle is (+visited) place in Scotland.
4. Ben Nevis is the (+tall) mountain in Scotland.
5. Scotland is not (+sunny) country in the world but it sure is one of (+beautiful).