

1) Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first

After being in London for a year, I still find driving on the left difficult.

After being in London for a year, I still can't get _____ on the left.

My hair was very long when I was a teenager.

When I was a teenager I used _____ long hair.

"I think you should talk to a lawyer," he said to Sarah.

He advised _____ to a lawyer.

"I didn't kill my husband" she said.

She denied _____.

"I'm sorry I'm late," James said.

James _____ late.

2) Put the verbs in the gerund or infinitive form

I don't remember meet you before.

The car needs clean. Shall I take it to the car wash?

He managed get to the airport on time.

You must try not be late again.

3) Choose the correct option

Samuel promised to work/working/work harder at school.

Marcos wasn't used to/didn't use to/didn't get used to be good at English, but now he speaks it really well.

I 'm used to/usually/use to go swimming on Fridays after work.

My parents used make/making/to make me do my homework when I got home from school.

After a year in Britain I've finally got used to/been used to/used to driving on the left.

My grandmother can't get used live/to live/to living alone. She feels lonely.

I advised Mick not buying/to not buy/not to buy the red and yellow shirt.

She regretted not studying/not to study/not study harder for the test.

There are a lot of rules, but don't worry. You'll soon get used/get used to/used to them.

The police accused him of shoplifting/for shoplifting/to shoplift.

I've lived in six different countries. I used to/get used/'m used to learning new languages.

I can't stand listening/to listen to people talking on their mobile phones.

I don't mind missing/to miss the film. I've seen it before.

I remember visiting/to visit my grandparents by the sea when I was a child.

We'd better get/to get up early tomorrow if we're going to catch the early train.

I tried learning/to learn all the vocabulary for the test, but I couldn't remember it all.

I can't wait going/to go on holiday with my friends in the summer.

I stopped buying/to buy bread last summer.

My brother's teachers make him work/to work very hard at his school.

I'll never forget seeing/to see The Pyramids for the first time.

James offered looking/to look after his neighbour's cat.

Ben convinced me not to give up playing/to play football.

I apologized for not doing/to do my homework.

I used to/'m used to eat a lot of sweets and cakes, but now I only eat healthy food.

It took me a while, but I finally got used to working/work with this software.

I wasn't used to/didn't use to like fish, but now I eat it two or three times a week.

Ricky usually/used to walks to school, but today he's getting the bus.

I used to play/playing the piano, but now I play the drums.

I'm not used to/I didn't used to swimming in the sea. I usually swim in a pool.

My boyfriend moved away last summer and I can't get used to/be used to being without him.

When we go on holiday, we usually/use rent a house on the beach.

4) Choose the correct option

What does Gary say he enjoys about his job?

- Competing with bigger newspapers.
- Working with a small staff.
- Meeting people in the community.

How does Gary feel about writing for a larger newspaper?

- It isn't the most important thing for him.
- He really would like to do it one day.
- He doesn't think he'll have that opportunity.

According to Gary, how will local newspapers change?

- They will include more national news.
- They won't survive very long.
- They will mainly print local news stories.

Does Gary think newspapers influence communities more nowadays than in the past?

- Possibly
- Definitely
- Definitely not

How do reporters research stories?

- They use researchers more than the Internet.
- They rarely use the Internet because it's not perfect.
- They mostly use the Internet.