

3.4. Relative pronouns who, which, where

We use

who when we talk about people.	It's my friend Lily who likes watching films and reading books about famous people. Jim is a waiter who works in «Chocolate Pie».
which when we talk about animals and things.	It's a device for listening to music which was popular in the 1980s. It's a dog which is very funny and friendly.
where when we talk about places.	It's a place where teachers work. Russia is a country where winters are very cold.

Exercise 1

Fill in the gaps with who or which.

1. A teacher is a person who works at school.
2. It's the picture _____ Leonardo da Vinci painted in 1495.
3. This is my brother Jack _____ likes doing karate and playing tennis.
4. It's a photo of the first telephone _____ Alexander Graham Bell invented in 1876.
5. It's a thing _____ I use to listen to music.
6. Howard Aiken is an engineer _____ invented the first computer in 1941.

Exercise 2

Circle the correct variant.

1. This is the cafe where you can buy a tasty burger.
a) who b) which c) where
2. Mrs. Brown is a teacher _____ works at Clifton School.
a) who b) which c) where
3. This is my sister Alice _____ wants to be a pilot.
a) who b) which c) where
4. This is my room _____ I do my homework.
a) who b) which c) where
5. It's the car _____ Jim wants to buy.
a) who b) which c) where
6. It's the book _____ Julie reads every day before going to bed.
a) who b) which c) where

Exercise 3

Put the words in the correct order.

1. and friendly / which is funny / it's a dog.
It's a dog which is funny and friendly.
2. is a place / cafe / where waiters work.

3. where brothers Casio invented / Japan / the first electronic calculator / is the country.

4. nurse / who helps doctors / is a person.

5. this is / where my grandfather works / the farm.
