

TASK 16 (NOUNS)

- 1) Let's give a cheer to the kids who passed their (examine).
- 2) Most infections occur in (children).
- 3) These urgent measures should be taken to ensure the (continue) of food supplies.
- 4) He proclaimed himself (empire).
- 5) The (express) has two very different (mean) in English.
- 6) The minister has called for the (prohibit) of all imports of wild birds.
- 7) They're nearest (relationship).
- 8) During our meeting, he indicated his (will) to cooperate.
- 9) I lost some of my most prized (possess) in the fire.
- 10) The (research)'s job is to gather information about people.
- 11) They are Japan's largest software (distribute).
- 12) I got into an (argue) with the other driver.
- 13) Some (hobby) write music or collect stamps.
- 14) (consultation) can help academic institutions to manage their resources more efficiently.
- 15) The whole (operate) depends on a steady flow of(electric).
- 16) Some possible (interpret) of this (differ) are given at the end of this chapter.
- 17) Direct mail order (sell) of food products by food (manufacture) and (special) shops has become big(busy).
- 18) "You know I love you," she said with childlike (simplify).
- 19) They didn't have (permit) to cross the frontier.
- 20) Fingerprinting is used as a means of (identify) all over the world.
- 21) Cheaper memory, faster processors, and larger (store) devices, come on to the market with increasing (rapid).
- 22) The company has no serious (competition).
- 23) There are three bars, with live (entertain) seven nights a week.
- 24) Most people use file (attach) to their e-mail but many mail servers have (limit) on file sizes.
- 25) She had never accepted the (real) of her (pregnant).