

Podaj właściwą formę słowa.

- a) Look at your (reflect) in the mirror. There's no sign of the scar you had before the surgery.
- b) The skiing lesson with the ski-jumping champion was a great (please) and an experience to remember.
- c) Only a month ago Jason found (employ) in the factory. Before that, he and his family had lived in (poor).
- d) Everybody knows there is a fierce (rival) between Mike and William for Susie's (admire).
- e) (fortune), there were no (survive) of the plane crash in Lockerby caused by a terrorist attack.
- f) Our team have won, but we hoped for a much better (perform). The score was not (satisfy) at all.
- g) Paparazzi never stop disturbing celebrities' (private) so as to satisfy common people's (curious) about their lives.
- h) We expressed our (grateful) to the neighbours who helped us with the (move) and invited them to our new house in Brighton.
- i) The divorce was a (pain) experience. I can't think how Mandy managed to remain so (disturb). Or was she only pretending?
- j) The play was hardly (enjoy) but Harry refrained from expressing his opinions aloud to avoid an (embarrass).
- k) It was a pity Harry left the company. Still, his assistant turned out to be a competent (replace).
- l) I don't believe this heavy training can be (advantage) to my health. It's too much strain.
- m) Our young patient is making an (improve), but there's still a long way to his complete (recover).
- n) There was a great (confuse) in the church when the bride made a sudden (announce) that she didn't love her fiancé.
- o) It was lies and gossips that ruined their (marry). If it hadn't been for the other people's (interfere) Josh and Patty would still have been a happy couple.