Hi Jo,

You asked me about places to stay. There's an expensive 4-star hotel. It's got a swimming pool and a nice restaurant but we can't stay there! There are some g and b and d and t places but they are small with only three or four rooms. I'm worried about coming back late at night or making a noise. I don't want to stay somewhere which is just like being at home!

Another idea is to stay on a c e. I've got a tent but what about rain? I think the best place to stay is the local y h i.

There are rooms for 4 or 8 people. It's a good way to meet interesting people and it's very cheap.

What do you think?

Rebecca

REMEMBER BETTER

The verb go collocates with many prepositions:

go to (a place) go with (a person)

go for (a period of time) go by (transport)

go in (a month/year) go on (a day / date)

go at (a time)

Think about one of your holidays and write sentences using all the expressions above. This will help you remember them better.

6 Match the beginnings (1-7) with the endings (a-g) of the sentences.

- I want to go to Spain in
- We usually go to
- I went skiing with
- I wasn't here last summer - I went to Italy in
- We want to go to New Zealand for
- It's really expensive to go anywhere at
- I went to New York on

- France in the summer.
- July and did not come back until September.
- Christmas time.
- my best friend last winter. It was so much fun!
- four weeks - it's too far away to go for less.
- September - it's cheaper and it's not so hot.
- Monday and was back on Friday - it was a very quick visit.

Holiday memories

Last year, my friends and I went to Portugal. We travelled by plane. When we arrived, we got a hotel from the airport to the hotel where we stayed. It was very big and right next to the sea. The town was a nice size and we went to the beach and the shops on the way.

It wasn't expensive so we had some money to spend. We staid on motorbikes and rented the hotel. We had a great time but, really, it was a holiday - being in the sun and swimming in the sea. The only problem was that there was only one restaurant in the area and we couldn't have a reservation. Some days we waited an hour for a free table but the food was delicious.

On the last day, we visited a local market and bought some clothes and souvenirs. We were worried the next day because we forgot to book a reservation for the journey back to the airport but it was OK. There were three free places at the back.

All in all, it was a wonderful time. We're going again this year. Sally booked the hotel last
