

Kylie Minogue & Nick Cave
Where the Wild Roses Grow

(Murder Ballads, Nick Cave & The Bad Seeds, Mute Records, 1996)

1. Fill in the missing words.

Chorus:

They call me the wild _____
But my _____ was Elisa Day
Why they _____ me it I do not know
For my _____ was Elisa Day.

2. Write the past simple form of the verb in brackets.

From the first day I _____ (see) her I _____ (know) she _____ (be) the one
As she _____ (star) in my eyes and _____ (smile)
For her lips _____ (be) the colour of the roses
That _____ (grow) down the river, all bloody and wild

When he _____ (knock) on my door and _____ (enter) the room

My trembling _____ (subside) in his sure embrace
He would be my first man, and with a careful hand
He _____ (wipe) at the tears that _____ (run) down my face

[Chorus]

3. Circle the word that you hear.

On the second day I bought/brought her a flower
She was most/more/moore beautiful than any woman/women I'd seen
I sayed/said/sad, "Do you know where the wild roses grow/grown
So sweet and scarlet and free?"

On the second day he became/came/come with a single red rose
He said: "Will you give/gave/gift me your loss and your sorrow?"
I nodded/noded/nod my head, as I lie/lay/laid on the bed
"If I show you the roses will you follow?"

[Chorus]

4. Number the verses of the last stanza (1-4 and 1-4) to put them into the correct order.

- _____ As he knelt above me with a rock in his fist
- _____ He showed me the roses and we kissed
- _____ On the third day he took me to the river
- _____ And the last thing I heard was a muttered word

- _____ And lent down and planted a rose between her teeth
- _____ And she lay on the bank, the wind light as a thief
- _____ On the last day I took her where the wild roses grow
- _____ As I kissed her goodbye, I said, "All beauty must die"
