

Year 3 EAL Review Worksheet – Unit 6: Myths and Legends

1 Reading Comprehension

Read this short version of the story:

Long ago, in Australia, Tiddalik the frog was very thirsty. He drank all the water from the streams, rivers, and lakes. The animals became scared because there was no water left. Wombat, Kangaroo, Kookaburra, and Eel tried to make Tiddalik laugh. Finally, Eel wobbled and tied herself in a knot. Tiddalik laughed so hard that all the water came out of his mouth. The animals were happy again.
