

Subjunctive Mood – C1 Practice Exercises

Part 1 – Rewrite the sentences using the subjunctive structure

1. The manager said it's necessary for employees to arrive on time.
2. The board thinks that the budget should be revised immediately.
3. We think it's crucial for team members not to ignore client feedback.
4. It was strongly recommended that he doesn't attend the meeting.
5. HR believes it's essential to respect personal boundaries at work.
6. They insisted that the new policy should apply to everyone equally.

Part 2 – Multiple Choice (Choose the correct subjunctive form)

7. It's essential that each employee _____ their ID badge at all times.
A) carries

- B) carry
- C) carried
- D) has carried

8. The committee proposed that the report ____ revised again.

- A) be
- B) is
- C) was
- D) being

9. I suggested that she ____ the client directly.

- A) contacts
- B) contact
- C) contacting
- D) contacted

10. It's vital that no one ____ late to the strategy meeting.

- A) is
- B) be
- C) was
- D) are

Part 3 – Complete the sentences using the subjunctive

11. I recommend that all new hires

_____ (attend) the onboarding training.

12. It's imperative that the management _____ (not ignore) staff concerns.

13. The consultant suggested that the company _____ (invest) more in employee wellbeing.

14. The trainer requested that everyone _____ (complete) the course by Friday.

15. It's advisable that the team _____ (review) the contract thoroughly.