

English Worksheet:

Second Conditional – Dreams ✨

1. Watch and Learn: The Second Conditional

Watch the video linked below and take notes as you go. Be ready to share your ideas and notes in our next class discussion!

 Second Conditional Video Lesson

2. Grammar Challenge: Complete the Sentences

Use the correct form of the verb in brackets to complete each sentence. Think carefully and have fun putting your grammar skills to the test!

1. If I _____ (have) a million dollars, I _____ (travel) the world.
 2. She _____ (buy) a new car if she _____ (pass) her driving test.
 3. If they _____ (live) closer, we _____ (see) each other more often.
 4. If I _____ (be) you, I _____ (take) that job offer.
 5. He _____ (not be) so tired if he _____ (sleep) earlier.
 6. If we _____ (have) a bigger house, we _____ (invite) more friends over.
 7. If I _____ (know) the answer, I _____ (tell) you.
 8. They _____ (not go) to the party if they _____ (know) it _____ (be) so far away.
 9. If she _____ (study) harder, she _____ (get) better grades.
 10. If I _____ (be) a bird, I _____ (fly) to exotic places.
-

3. Listening Activity: Exploring Conditional Sentences

Listen carefully to the audio clip provided about conditional sentences. Pay attention to the structure and examples you'll use what you hear in the follow-up task.

 Podcast 52 - B1 IELTS 4.5 Second Conditional

4. Comprehension Check ✓!

After listening to the audio, respond to the questions below to show your understanding of the key ideas and examples.

1. What is the main difference between the first and second conditionals?
2. Provide an example of a second conditional sentence mentioned in the podcast.
3. What does the speaker suggest about the use of "were" in conditional sentences?
4. How does the speaker explain the use of modal verbs like "would," "could," and "might" in the second conditional?
5. What advice does the speaker give regarding the structure of second conditional sentences?

5. Matching Activity: Build Conditional Sentences

Match each sentence beginning with its correct ending to form complete and meaningful conditional sentences.

Column A (If Clause)

1. If I won the lottery,
2. If she studied more,
3. If they had a bigger house,
4. If we had more time,
5. If I were rich,

Column B (Result Clause)

- A. I would travel the world.
- B. he would be happier.
- C. she would pass the exam.
- D. we would visit more museums.
- E. I would buy a new car.

Congratulations on completing the worksheet! 🎉🌟

I'm sure you're thinking 🤔 "If I played football like Messi ⚽, I would never have to do homework again!". 😊

🌟 Keep up the great work and keep practicing you're doing amazing! 🌟