

Comment y aller – exercice d'ecoute

Listen to the phrases from the play "Comment y aller" and choose the correct translations.

1.  a. Here is the story of a boy called Pierre. b. Here is the story of a girl called Marie. c. Here is the story of a boy called Marie.
2.  a. I can go by foot. b. I can go by car. c. I can go by train.
3.  a. It is a train conductor. b. It is a policeman. c. It is a policewoman.
4.  a. Can you help me? b. Can I help you? c. Can I help Pierre?
5.  a. I am happy. b. I am tired. c. I am sorry.
6.  a. The car doesn't work. b. The car stops. c. The car works.
7.  a. It's too bad, but thank you anyways. b. It's terrible, but thank you anyways. c. I'm sorry, but thank you anyways.
8.  a. Suddenly, she jumps in a train. b. Suddenly, she sees someone who drives a train. c. Suddenly, she sees someone who drives a plane.
9.  a. He lives very, very far. b. He lives very, very close. c. He lives far, far away.
10.  a. Marie runs and runs again. b. Marie walks and walks again. c. Marie marches and marches again.
11.  a. Go away! b. Come here. c. Come with me.

12.  a. Marie jumps in the water and swims and swims. b. Marie jumps in the sky and flies and flies. c. Marie jumps on the trampoline.

13.  a. But, the alien doesn't see. b. But, the alien doesn't hear. c. But, the alien doesn't smell.

14.  a. The flying saucer arrives in Paris. b. The boat arrives in Paris. c. The airplane arrives in Paris.

15.  a. Pierre has left to see you in a boat. b. Pierre has left to see you in a flying saucer. c. Pierre has left to see you in a plane.