The people below all want to join a new gym class.

On the opposite page there are descriptions of eight gym classes.

Decide which class would be the most suitable for the people below.

1		Josh prefers working out in the morning because he likes to study in the afternoon. He's trying to save money, so he doesn't want to spend a lot on classes. He likes working out in big groups.
2		Taylor takes sport really seriously. She wants to join a gym that has classes every day, Monday to Friday. She's played hockey, tennis and basketball. Now she wants to focus on improving her stamina and overall fitness.
3		Jacob isn't very fit, but he would like to get fitter with an exciting gym class because he usually finds exercising boring. He also wants his friends to join in. He'd like to track his progress every week.
4		Chloe loves going to the gym but is recovering from a running injury. She's interested in low-intensity classes like stretching. She would like evening classes.
5		Rachael is very fit and is planning a challenging triathlon. She has been focusing on her running and swimming techniques, and would now like to join a class to help her improve her endurance on her bike. She would like to train twice a week.
