

Workshop
Multiple choice – Definitions of clarifying statements
Instructions: Choose only one option

Name: _____

1. What is a clarifying statement?

- a) A sentence that changes the main idea.
- b) A sentence that explains an unclear idea to make it easier to understand.
- c) A sentence that adds new unrelated information.
- d) A sentence that repeats the same words exactly.

2. A clarifying statement helps the reader by:

- a) Giving more details or examples about a confusing point.
- b) Making the text longer.
- c) Removing important information.
- d) Using difficult words.

3. Which of the following best describes a clarifying statement?

- a) A phrase that makes the meaning more confusing.
- b) A phrase that introduces a new topic.
- c) A phrase that restates information in simpler words.
- d) A phrase that gives an opinion.

4. Clarifying statements are used to:

- a) Add extra information to avoid misunderstandings.
- b) Make the text shorter.
- c) Change the meaning of the text.
- d) Ignore difficult parts.

5. A clarifying statement usually:

- a) Leaves the reader confused.
- b) Adds unrelated examples.
- c) Uses technical language only.
- d) Repeats the main idea using different words to help understanding.