

benefit, refer, background, exclude, poverty line, gap, lack, bias, biased, afford, income, discriminate, shelter, performance, elderly, means, susceptible, expectancy, household, unemployment, prevent, responsible, likelihood, participate, charity, barrier, affluent, peer

1. There is a clear _____ in the job market that _____ older workers from getting a job, despite their experience.
2. It's illegal to _____ against a person based on their age.
3. Ageism _____ to stereotyping of individuals or groups on the basis of age.
4. Some people are _____ from promotions because they are too young or too old.
5. The selection process is _____ against young people, because it insists candidates have five years experience. This created a _____ for young people.
6. People of all ages _____ from fair workplace policies.
7. A fair workplace policy judges people on their _____ and their _____, not on their age or gender.
8. Older women are the most _____ to discrimination in the workplace.
9. Women often earn less than men do. This wage _____ means that some families can't _____ to pay for basics like food.
10. Many people have lost their job. The high _____ rate may be _____ for some families living below the _____.
11. There is a greater _____ that the poor will become homeless or live in temporary accommodation like a _____.
12. The _____ (older people) often _____ (don't have) knowledge of social services they are entitled to.
13. A _____ such as the Red Cross can help people who don't have the _____ (resources) to support themselves.
14. Usually in _____ (rich) countries, the life _____ is several years longer than in poor countries.
15. The information was gathered from individuals and multi-person _____ who _____ in the study. They provided information on their _____ (how much money they earned).
16. Some people prefer to learn from a _____ (a person of the same age), than from a teacher.