

Name: _____ Date: _____

Unit 1: LOCAL COMMUNITY

I. Listen and choose the correct answer to each question. ♫ TRACK 01

1. What is the purpose of the 'National Spring Clean' campaign?

- A. To promote tourism in Scotland.
- B. To encourage people to pick up litter and clean their local areas.
- C. To organize cultural events and festivals.
- D. To increase the use of recycling facilities.

2. Who organizes the 'National Spring Clean' campaign?

- A. The Scottish Government
- B. Local community groups
- C. Keep Scotland Beautiful
- D. Environmental Protection Agency

3. What does the Scottish national recording programme reveal about litter in Scotland?

- A. It has found litter in 50% of the sites it visited.
- B. It has found litter in 80% of the sites it visited.
- C. It has found no litter in the sites it visited.
- D. It has found litter in 20% of the sites it visited.

4. How many volunteers participated in the National Spring Clean 2011?

- A. 1,538
- B. 80,000
- C. 100,000
- D. 50,000

5. What types of people can get involved in the National Spring Clean campaign?

- A. Only adults
- B. Only children
- C. Only environmental professionals
- D. Both adults and children

II. Listen again and complete the sentences. ♫ TRACK 02

In Scotland, during April and May, there is a campaign called 'National Spring Clean' organised by Keep Scotland Beautiful, an (1) _____ organisation working to make Scotland cleaner, greener, and more sustainable. "National Spring Clean" (2) _____ people to get together to pick up litter. Adults and children can (3) _____ to clean up their neighbourhood or local area and help make it beautiful and tidy for everyone. It has been (4) _____ that Scotland faces a litter problem. A Scottish national recording programme has (5) _____ it found litter in 80% of the sites it visited. According to the organisation's website, during National Spring Clean 2011, almost 100,000 volunteers (6) _____ in 1,538 clean-up events throughout Scotland.