

How practicing dictation will improve your English skills?

When practicing exercises at dailydictation.com, you will go through 4 main steps, all of them are equally important!

1. Listen to the audio

Through the exercises, you will have to listen a lot; that's the key to improving your listening skills in any learning method.

2. Type what you hear

Typing what you hear forces you to focus on every detail which helps you become better at pronunciation, spelling and writing.

3. Check & correct

Error correction is important for your listening accuracy and reading comprehension, it's best to learn from mistakes.

4. Read it out loud

After complete a sentence, try to read it out loud, it will greatly improve your pronunciation & speaking skills!
