

Practicing Transition Signals

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Instructions:

Part 1: Choose the right transition signal

Complete the following sentences by choosing the correct transition word or phrase in parentheses.

1. _____, let's discuss the benefits of recycling. (First / However / In conclusion)
2. Many people use public transport to reduce pollution. _____, some prefer to use bicycles. (Similarly, / For example / Now)
3. The government has introduced new laws to protect forests. _____, some environmentalists think these laws are not strict enough. (For example, / However / First)
4. _____, we need to raise awareness about climate change. (Now / In conclusion / Similarly)

5. Many companies are reducing waste. _____, they are investing in renewable energy. (For example, / However / First)

Part 2: Complete Sentences with the Right Transition Sign

Relate the first part of the sentence to the second using the proper transition.

Prayer 1	Correct transition signal	Prayer 2
The city has improved its recycling program		Other cities have started similar initiatives
The new policy aims to reduce emissions		Many people still doubt its effectiveness
We need to educate the public about saving water		Many schools have started environmental clubs
The environment is facing serious challenges		We must act quickly to prevent damage