

- a. Buses, trains, and taxis make it easy to travel without a car.
- b. Cities have many businesses and companies, so it is easier to find a job.
- c. In a big city like London, people can find jobs in offices, shops, restaurants, and factories.
- d. Rent, food, and transportation in cities are more expensive than in small towns.
- e. In Tokyo, the subway system is very fast and convenient, so many people do not need to own a car.
- f. In New York, people can visit Broadway theaters, Central Park, and many famous museums.
- g. Cities have shopping malls, cinemas, parks, and restaurants to enjoy.
- h. Too many cars on the roads cause traffic jams, which waste time.
- i. In San Francisco, the rent for a small apartment is very high compared to a small town nearby.
- j. Cities are very noisy, and the air is sometimes dirty because of cars and factories.
- k. In Bangkok, people often spend hours in traffic when going to work or school.
- l. In Beijing, the air pollution is sometimes so bad that people wear masks outside.

Advantages	More job opportunities	Explanation:
		Example:
	Better public transport	Explanation:
		Example:
	More entertainment options	Explanation:
		Example:
Disadvantages	High cost of living	Explanation:
		Example:
	Traffic congestion	Explanation:
		Example:
	Noise and	Explanation:

	pollution	Example:
--	------------------	----------