Lesson 7-Unit 7

Talk about dreams for the future

Write about your dreams for the future

Where do you see yourself in 10 years? Are you working in that future? Are you still studying? Are you doing something you like? write at least 10 lines.

Now, briefly answer the following question: What would you do for your dreams if you and your families had more money than currently?

2 LISTEN

Two friends, Edgar and Carla, are talking about what they would do if they suddenly got a lot of money.

- A  LISTEN FOR MAIN IDEA. What would Carla do if she had more money?

- B  LISTEN FOR DETAILS. Listen again. Then answer the questions.

1. How much money did the person who works in Edgar's office get?

2. What did the person who works in Edgar's office do with the money?

3. Why does Carla want to go back to school?

4. What would Carla do for work if she went to medical school?

5. What would Edgar do differently in his life if he got a lot of money?

6. What would Edgar buy if he got a lot of money?

3 PRONUNCIATION

- A  PRACTICE. Listen. Then listen again and repeat.

What would you do if you had a lot of money?
Would you quit your job?

Pronouncing would you

In conversation, would you is often pronounced "wouldja." The words are joined together and pronounced as one word.

- B  APPLY. Listen. Circle the words you hear. Then listen again to check your answers.
