

Adjectives. Task 12

- 1) (Volunteer) action represents a major force for positive (environment) change.
- 2) Candidates should be conversant with international(economics) and (finance) issues and have (practice) experience using (person) computers.
- 3) There were not enough classrooms and staff had to work in (crowd) conditions.
- 4) She was a (cheer) and (agree) companion.
- 5) Our daycare center is (convenience) for parents with (youth) children.
- 6) Computers should be made readily (access) to teachers and pupils.
- 7) It has(destroy) and even (catastrophe) effects for the environment.
- 8) This was certainly not the most (glamour) or (hero) of episodes.
- 9) She was sitting on a (grass) bank.
- 10) The evening was an (enjoy) affair and it made a (please) change not to have to leave Sally alone.
- 11) One of the(principle) concerns is the loss of (create) possibility.
- 12) As we saw in Chapter 1 and as every (sense) student of crime knows by now,
..... (crime) statistics are highly (problem) data.
- 13) It looks (ridicule) but is exceptionally (effect)!
- 14) International travel can be an (excite) and (reward) adventure.
- 15) (Care) thought must be given to the requirements of the plants and ..... (suit) conditions provided.
- 16) The old man was mildly (superstition).
- 17) Considering her difficult childhood her behaviour is (excuse).
- 18) He was in (urgency) need of (medicine) attention.
- 19) The stability of the rural economy may be (depend) on the (climate) change.
- 20) What differences are there between the (north) and (south) parts?
- 21) All very (temptation) and very (afford).
- 22) Unfortunately many (youth) people are(ignore) of recent history.
- 23) The chapter concludes with a (brevity) examination of (industry) purchasing.
- 24) (Psychology) addiction may occur after (repeat) use of analgesics for relief from chronic pain.
- 25) The best approach is to be (patience) and (tolerance).