

Oh, it's too late
Come the waste
Dirty English sky
It's washin' me.....
Open my lungs
I feel the gunge
How it tries tome
It's stingin'
Now you know we're all the
Who have you been left to blame?
Everlasting again
It's all we've got left

So here's your last kiss
Won't wannathis
Only of heaven I ever had
No, I don't think it's for nothin'
But I hopewe're gonna get it back
Cover our eyes
It feels so
Lie on mornin' TV
It's
Say thethings the right way
Takes you to the highest place
It's to embrace the insane

Tomorrow is closed
There's no at all
We've burned it all down, down to the ground
Oh, I saw it written on the wall
I've lost my place, we all have
