Sleeping habits

People of different ages from around the UK email us about their sleeping habits:

I have a strange habit of falling asleep when I watch the television and it usually happens when I am watching something I am really interested in! Then when I go upstairs to bed I find I can't sleep and I usually listen to the radio for hours and hours during the night.

Philip, aged 64

I have an eight-month-old baby and a three-year-old so I don't get much sleep at the moment. I work during the day and it can be difficult to stay awake when I haven't slept much.

Clare, aged 35

I share a room with my older brother. He usually talks on the phone! It's really noisy.

Clyde, aged 16

I read in the paper the other day that most children in Britain don't sleep enough. They watch TV until late in the evenings and then they are really tired at school. I'm a teacher and sometimes in the classes after lunch the students look sleepy. Some people say that maybe school should start later for teenagers. I think they might be right.

Jag, aged 29
