

Adjectives

Task 16

- 1) Kemp went (bankruptcy), and there were no (sufficiency) purchasers to complete the (fantasy) design.
- 2) The movie is (spectacle) and (excite) but (believe).
- 3) These are the 17 most heavily (debt) nations of the world.
- 4) It was cold and (fog) morning.
- 5) The editing is choppy and (amateur).
- 6) The impact of immigration on the (nation) economy isn't always (benefit).
- 7) Stew the vegetables in the meat juice to make them (taste) and (appetite).
- 8) The story is rich in (symbol) significance.
- 9) She had not intended to be (humour).
- 10) The disease developed in a way that follows a (prediction) pattern.
- 11) It was (scandal) waste of (publicity) money.
- 12) She's in intensive care, where she remains (critic), but (stability).
- 13) Why this has happened I am not (competence) to say, but it could be a (fruit) and (fascination) subject for research.
- 14) Researchers hope to find (chemistry) or (biology) factors that protect some children against malaria.
- 15) The company is (responsibility) for maintaining public telephone boxes.
- 16) This (night) talk show gets on my nerves. (=happening every night).
- 17) The morning is (sun) and (snow), as it should be.
- 18) Support of (Europe) unity began to gather pace.
- 19) His voice was (culture) and unmistakably English.
- 20) Are you (marriage), single, or (divorce)?
- 21) He was wrong, and (courage) enough to admit it.
- 22) The strings are the most (expression) and (flexibility) group in the orchestra.
- 23) Many banks are offering (finance) packages for students.
- 24) I'm (sympathise) to your parents.
- 25) There are a lot of (climate) zones on the Earth.